

State of South Carolina
Executive Department

FILED

JUN 28 2022

Mark Hammond
SECRETARY OF STATE

Office of the Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 2022-18

WHEREAS, the Order of the Palmetto, the State of South Carolina's highest civilian honor, was established by Governor John C. West in 1971 and may be presented by the Governor to natives or residents of the State in recognition of a lifetime of extraordinary achievement, service, and contribution to the well-being of the State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, the Order of the Silver Crescent, the State of South Carolina's most prestigious service award, was established by Governor David Beasley in 1997 and may be presented by the Governor to natives or residents of the State in recognition of a remarkable achievement or action or an individual's significant community service or volunteerism at the local level; and

WHEREAS, individuals who are neither natives nor current residents of the State of South Carolina but who have nevertheless made significant contributions to the State of South Carolina or benefitted the State by demonstrating or displaying remarkable leadership, service, or achievement may have heretofore warranted or been deserving of special recognition but were ineligible for consideration based on the limitations associated with the Order of the Palmetto and the Order of the Silver Crescent; and

WHEREAS, the term "sandlapper" is of unconfirmed origin but has been variously ascribed to South Carolinians' role in fighting for independence in the Revolutionary War, attributed to President George Washington's apparent use of the term during his 1791 travels through South Carolina on his Southern Tour, and utilized in reference to the Sandhills region of the State, which demarks the ancient coastline that once dissected South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, regardless of the term's origin, subsequent generations of South Carolinians have studied the words of and learned to sing Good Sandlappers, by Nelle McMaster Sprott, which expresses pride in calling the State home and has further led to the informal adoption of "Sandlapper" as an endearing reference to, and nickname for, South Carolinians.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of South Carolina and pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of this State and the powers conferred upon me therein, I hereby establish the Honorary Sandlapper award, which the Governor of the State of South Carolina may award in his discretion and bestow upon individuals who are neither natives nor current residents of the State of South Carolina as a means of recognizing and expressing the State's gratitude for significant contributions to the State of South Carolina or its citizens or for extraordinary leadership, service, or achievement benefitting the State of South Carolina or its citizens. This Order is effective immediately.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, THIS 28th DAY OF JUNE, 2022.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Henry McMaster".

HENRY MCMASTER
Governor

ATTEST:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Hammond".

MARK HAMMOND
Secretary of State